RICHMOND, April 20. The Senate on Saturday passed a dozen bills appropriating fifteen hundred thousand dollars for the construction of a railroad between Galveston and New Orleans; also passed the House bill to provide for the organization of Partizan Rangers.

The Senate refused to concur in the res olution of the House, and rescinded the resolution, fixing the day of adjournment on the 21st.

In both Houses the report of the joint committee on the flag and seal was re-

The accompanying was received as the design for the flag: Red field, White Saltier, having in centre a device of the sun on azure shield, one star for each State. The House postponed the consideration of the report for the present, year 39; nays 21.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC. Daily and Weekly Progress.

Daily and Weekly Progress.

It is allerany known to the Public that the unceremonious entrance of Burnaide into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inaumonh as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card.

The Battle of Shtloh.

A gentleman who was present at the Battle of Shilon, furnishes the Savannah Republican, of this morning, with an interesting statement in regard to it, from which we take the following extract: General Hardee was slightly wounded in the shoulder; he is said to have greatly distinguished himself. General Breckinridge immortalized himselt, and proved himself as good a warrior as etatesman. There was but little skirmishing on Tuesday. One hundred and fifty Texan Rangers were attacked by the enemy, but the Texans drove them back with loss, capturing 58 prisoners. Wednesday, Forrest's (Tenn.) Cavalry

my completely demoralized. The six triotic sentiment: hundred prisoners captured on the same day said that Buell was killed early on Houses of Congress. Our wisest states conquering them. This report was generally credited.

It was not thought that there would be reinforced; this is not probable.

reinforced. From a wounded officer taken from the enemy, it was learned that the enemy had. on Sunday, one hundred and fifty two ments; he estimated the force at ninety a hundred thousand men, under the command of Generals Grant and Smith. He said Smith was ill and confined to his bed. General Buell's forces were reported to have been counted, as they crossed the river. They were thirty-seven thousand strong.

The seizure of Huntsville, it was thought, was by a portion of Buell's forces. Buell having discovered that Gen. Johnston had made a junction of his army with Besuregard, immediately endeavored to join his force with Grant, sending on General road, so as to divide our forces, while he scale; attacked us at Corinth. There can be no doubt but our Generals knew of the move for bacon, 35 cents per pound for butter. and were prepared for it.

Volunteers, well armed, were flocking to doubt of his ability to maintain his ground, EXTRAORDINARY ADVENTURE. - Youterday evening Capt. J. T. Montgomery arrived here from Corinth, whither he had above rates ?" gone when the wires first flashed the news of Sunday's great fight. After staying berizing the Standard. In the issue of the there till he desired to return, he left on former, now before us, we observe that it the Memphis & Charleston Railroad Wednesday night, the 9th, and arrived at Huntsvill next morning-no one on board dreaming that the Yankees were in the true Tonsorial style. We wonder what place. He was in the hindmost car, and as the train stopped, he heard some one say, "The Yankees have got us," and looking out, he saw them thick as bees around the engine and coming down along the train. He quickly stepped out, took a back street and was soon out of sight. Near the outskirts of the town, he entered a house, exchanged his uniform for citizens clothes, came back into town, hired a horse and buggy and negro driver at a livery stable, and started for the Tennessee river at the nearest point. He had proceeded but a little ways until a couple of monoted Federal officers having got scent of him from finding his name on his trunk in the cars, came up and accossted him as a Capt. Montgomery. He repudiated the name-said his name was Johnston, and said that he was going to his home from town They told him they knew better; that he was Capt. Montgomery of the rebel army and their prisoner, and must go with them. Quietly remarking that they must know more about his business than he did himself, he turned and started with them.

tion was directed to the negroes, he draw a pistel from his pocket, and instantly put a ball through the heart of one, who fell down dead. Another moment and he had put a ball through the other, who recled and clung to his horse a few moments. Meantime the Captain was speeding his way back towards the river. Locking seriely, turned the negro driver back with the horse and burgy, and got himself ferried across, just as fifty well armed and mounted men approached the bath, and could find no means to eross after him. They discharged their guns at him without effect. He took to the mountains, made his way to Chartenouge, and reached here last evening.

The Captain has been raising a regiment of Mounted Artillery. This is the kind of an officer his men will have to serve onder .- Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy, April 19.

THE STEAMER BERMUDA .- The Hamilton, Bermude, correspondent of the A York Herald, under date of March 21st, writes as follows:

The steamer Bermuda arrived yesterday at St. Georges, from Liverpool, England, bringing dates thence to the let inst. The report is that she has on board fifty tons gunpowder. Everything in regard to her is kept secret by those on board. She has brought some passengers, and it is rumored that Mr. Slidell was one of them. She will, I presume, leave again as soon as she obtains a supply of coal.

The Raleigh Standard closes a leader upon the Conscription Act just past, by entering its protest against it, and denounces it as a "monatrous and dangerous measure."

When they have doubled the sum of their debt, already enormous, entailed on their posterity forever the burden of taxation which even the wealthier Englishmen cannot bear without chaffing; when they have thrown their hardly won liberties, one after another, into the crucible or a military rule, which will reduce them to ashes, they will have paid too dearly for the honor which the raw schoolboy can teach them as the moral of their history—that it is impossible to reduce to subjugation ten millions of freemen determined on a seperate government .- London Herald March 17.

A Good Example.—The following is an extract of a private letter from a lady, dated Aberdeen, Arkansas:

The ladies about here have all learned to shoot; last summer we had shooting matches regularly-rather masculine sport for ladies, think you, I reckon; but nevertheless we all learned, and thought the times would justify it, and some got to be very expert in loading and shooting .-Would you believe that I can kill squirrels or birds on the top of tall trees? I keep a loaded gun in my room, also a pistol on a table near my bed every night, and, if necessary, would not hesitate to use them and I hope never to have a use for them.

THE YANKER BERART PLATE.-We M yesterday a speciment of one of the Yan-kee breast plates, captured at the buttle of Shiloh. It was only one part of it—the right breast. It is of steel, in a sheet form, and in two parts; one for the right, and one for the left breast. It was struck by six balls, two of which penstrated. Many seemed to doubt the statement that the Federals used breast-plates, but this dispels all doubts. It was sent by Express to His Excellency Governor Brown.

WANTED! A BATTALION

INDEPENDENT SKIRMISHERS. Permission has been granted Capt. WM. LEE DAVIDSON to raise the above corps.

General Ransom desires such an organiza. tion attached to his Brigade.

Three Companies of the above description are more effective than one whole regient of regulars. It is the same mode of warfare that was carried on in the revolu-tion. Let us harass and annoy the enemy in the rear. One more appeal is made to old Mecklenburg and the surrounding Counties. The Conscription act requiring all men between 18 and 35 years of age, to enter the service, has passed the Confeder-ate Congress. The last appeal is made to ate Congress. The last appeal is made to all within those ages to promptly respond to this call. Especially of our own dear county let it be said—"Many have done wall, but thou excellest them all." Organize immediately, elect your own officers, arm with shot guns and to the field, April 19, 1862

VOTICE.

The destitute FAMILIES of VOLUN-TEERS for the War, from Mecklenburg county, on bringing me a certificate from the Town Marshall that they are such will be furnished with clothing at my expense, as far as I am able. Call on Dr. E. Nya Hurchtson in my absence. April 18, 1862-1m
